1. Forwarded herewith is biographical information prepared by [] on Felix DOMER and Dr. Ernst MULLER.

2. Attention is called to DOMER's address which [] further describes as "indistinct" and which might be a deterrent factor in his recruitment.
It is pointed out, however, that [] has not seen DOMER since 1939, and it is quite possible that DOMER may have changed into a more aggressive person in the wake of his vicissitudes. Note also Kristo MALOMI's pro-Jugoslav orientation as well as his selfish, misanthropic make-up.

3. For Vienna, Munich, and Frankfurt [] is a contact agent who has been working under MULLER since 1945 for the last few years. He has excellent connections in the Albanian emigre circles and his information in the past has proven to be reliable and very useful.

KRIST MALOKI (or CHRISTOPH MALOKI)

Born in PRIZREN (KOSOVA) aged about 60.

Education: elementary school in PRIZREN. Secondary studies in SALZBURG (Austria) from where he graduated in 1911. University of GRAZ (Austria) Philosophy Faculty in 1925, Law Faculty in 1927 (specialised in criminality). His secondary and university studies he made on a state scholarship of the Albanian Public Instruction Ministry.
Speaks albanian, german and serbian.

In 1927, the Albanian Ministry of Public Instruction called him back to Albania but he refused. Having refused to return and serve the country being a state scholar he was obliged to face his own life by himself in Austria helped by a woman and giving lessons to pupils of secondary schools preparing them for the baccalaureat..

In 1939, the Minister of Public Instruction of Albania NUSH BUSHATI invited him to come to TIRANA and take charge of the Secretariat of the same ministry. He refused requesting to become minister.

On the Italian occupation of Albania, Krist MALOKI came to Rome and wished to become minister in one of the ministries in Albania especially in the Economy one.

During the German occupation he has wished to become Press Attaché at the Albanian Legation in BERLIN, but the Albanian Regency refused him.

After the second world war he took the austrian nationality.

In 1949, the organ of the BKI "L'albanie Libre" invited Krist MALOKI to open under his own responsibility a "free table" in the newspaper and for such he wrote several articles criticising all the periods of the State history of Albania. He has also written quite often in other revues under the pen name of KRISH.

In 1952, Krist MALOKI went to PARIS where he found a cousin of his Brok MALOKI. There he met Ramazan SHPATI to whom he expressed his thoughts that the regime of Tito had much the tendency of a pacification and national liberalism.

Krist MALOKI and Nush BUSHATI, both in GRAZ, have proposed to Vasi GERMANJI editor of the newspaper "LIRI e KOBIT" to hold a campaign for an approach with Yugoslavia (V. Germanji to _____ 15/XI/54)

In August 1955, Krist MALOKI has left AUSTRIA to go to visit his sister in PRIZREN. She is in a catholic convent. He has been quite Impressed during his sojourn in Yugoslavia of the great richness of the Albanian public lies there.

From his own initiative he practises large correspondence with the different Albanian newspapers and reviews, especially with those of Kosova, as Kossovarian that he is. He is in correspondence with the intellectual Kossovarians who are in Yugoslavia working as scientists and teachers, he is interested in the Albanologic Institute of Prizren.

Since a few years Kristo MALOKI has been counselling his fellow citizens to practice a realistic policy towards Yugoslavia saying "we are a very small people without any effective support from a Great State, in one word we have no true friend and fall in the hands of the Great Powers who use us as a small exchange currency for political interest... so, what can we do, we two million souls against the 17 millions of Yugoslavia?"

Now he is a teacher in a secondary school of GRAZ (AUSTRIA) and his address is: Christoph MALOKI, Postarwegasse 3, Graz, Austr.

He has never participated in the political affairs or matters of Albania although he has made numerous studies on political sciences.

Character: he is selfish has no true friend, has the mania of greatness of a GERMAN TEACHER and a selfish ambition. Great worker has a great will but has no personality nor individuality. Hates everybody and for the pleasure of his ambition he is capable of doing anything.
